Wed 19. Jan 2011

16:00 - 17:15 ZVO.ČI.TI. (so.und.ing) - Borut Savski

Description: The ZVO.ČI.TI. (so.und.ing) project by Brane Zorman is a series of thematically rounded radio and podcast audio broadcasts about Slovenian composers, musicians, sound innovators, activists, multimedia artists, authors of electro-acoustic and various sound experiments. The aim of the ZVO.ČI.TI. (so.und.ing) project is to establish connections in the Slovenian contemporary music scene that is active in the performing, experimental, and intermedia and internet field. The project presents authors of the younger and middle generation who create mainly independent music and sound art projects in various art forms in the institutional and non-institutional frame: for theatre, dance, film, ballet, performance art, festivals, events, installations, internet and experimental projects of a local and international scope. The ZVO.ČI.TI. (so.und.ing) production took place throughout the year 2010 and brings you all together more than 16 hours of music and interviews, talks with Slovenian sound artists in the Conacast podcasts and media enhanced mp3 formats.

17:15 - 18:30 ZVO.ČI.TI. (so.und.ing) - Octex

18:30 - 19:30 SAM selection / Jackie Apple: ghost.dances / on the event horizon

Description: "ghost.dances/ on the event horizon": following up her retrospective anthology "Thank You For Flying American", visual, performance, and media artist, and audio-composer/producer Jacki Apple's second CD release is a sonic evocation of the clash between nature and culture in the modern world. It contains works from six major pieces that explore environmental issues: The Amazon (from "The Amazon, The Mekong, The Missouri and The Nile"), an excerpt from "Aviary of the Lost" plus "Flame to Moth & Fish Gotta Swim" and "Ghost Dancers for Birdland" from "The Culture of Disappearance", the full-length "One World at a Time" set in outer space, inner space, and cyber space, and "Fluctuations of the Fields" based on the writing of physicist Erwin Schrödinger.

19:30 - 21:00 Ilari Valbonesi / The Paradigm of Listening (Sound, Voice, Body, Audience, Radio Art).

Description: Ilari Valbonesi's Lecture, Mestna Galerija Ljubljana, 6th dec 2011 with Sound art samples (S. Reich, A. Curran, Yoko Ono, S. Vitiello, S. Roden, Os Mutantes, P. Westenberg) "The decisive interest devoted to the strange reflexivity of sound encouraged the emergence of a genuine paradigm of listening from which I take steps to trace the event of a conceptual category of plastic art so called Sound Art : Art of Sound, that reflecting on itself, defines its own historical context".

21:00 - 21:30 SAM selection Notes For The Future - Globalgroove
